COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

THE HONORABLE DICK THORNBURGH

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF THE UNITED STATES

Dick Thornburgh became the 76th Attorney General of the United States on August 12, 1988, following unanimous confirmation by the Senate.

As Attorney General, Mr. Thornburgh serves as the nation's chief law enforcement officer and is in charge of executing the Administration's initiatives against drug traffickers, organized crime and white collar criminals, as well as stronger enforcement of civil rights, anti-trust and environmental laws.

During his tenure, he has taken the lead in international cooperative efforts to crack down on money laundering and drug trafficking activities of the illegal drug cartels. On behalf of the United States, he signed the UN Drug Convention in Vienna and successfully lobbied for U.S. Senate ratification. He also has established Securities Fraud Task Forces in eight cities, Savings and Loan investigative and prosecutive units in 27 cities and an Organized Crime Council to coordinate the federal fight against racketeering. Under his leadership, a 50 percent increase in the number of federal prosecutors is underway and a program to nearly double the number of federal prison cells has been launched.

Prior to assuming his present office, Mr. Thornburgh served from 1987 to 1988 as Director of the Institute of Politics at Harvard's John F. Kennedy School of Government and as a partner in the Pittsburgh law firm of Kirkpatrick & Lockhart.

Mr. Thornburgh served two terms as Governor of Pennsylvania. He was elected in 1978, re-elected in 1982, and named by his fellow governors in a 1986 Newsweek poll as one of the nation's most effective big-state governors.

Prior to becoming Governor, he served as United States Attorney for Western Pennsylvania (1969-1975), prosecuting a number of drug traffickers, major organized crime figures and corrupt public officials. Thereafter, he served (1975-1977) as Assistant Attorney General of the United States in charge of the Criminal Division of the Department of Justice during the administration of President Gerald Ford. He established the Public Integrity Section to spearhead the Justice Department's actions against corrupt public officials.

In 1973, he received a Special Medallion Award from the Federal Drug Enforcement Administration for "significant personal efforts to help eliminate drug abuse."

During his years in office, Pennsylvania's serious crime rate dropped by more than 17 percent and consistently was the lowest of any large state. His programs to assist crime victims, including a Victim's Bill of Rights, and funding of rape crisis and domestic violence centers, earned Mr. Thornburgh the first national award ever given by the National Organization for Victim Assistance.

In 1979, Mr. Thornburgh's calm and effective handling of the unprecedented Three Mile Island nuclear crisis was widely credited with having averted panic and injury.

A native of Pittsburgh, Mr. Thornburgh, 58, holds an engineering degree from Yale and a law degree from the University of Pittsburgh. Villanova University conferred on him an honorary doctoral degree in 1980. He has been awarded honorary degrees by 25 other colleges and universities.

Mr. Thornburgh is married to Ginny Judson Thornburgh, a former school teacher from New York, who is currently Director of the Religion and Disability Program, National Organization on Disability, based in Washington.

The Thornburghs have four sons and three grandchildren. As parents of a son with mental retardation, Dick and Ginny Thornburgh have taken a special interest in the needs of persons with disabilities and, along with their son, Peter, were named "Family of the Year" by the Pennsylvania Association for Retarded Citizens in 1985.

THE ORDER OF THE COIF

The Order of the Coif is the National Honor Society devoted to the encouragement of high standards of legal scholarship with chapters in leading law schools throughout the country. Graduates in the top ten percent of the class are eligible for election to the Order of the Coif.

The Order takes its name from the word used to designate the cap which all the members of the Order were required to wear. This cap or coif was originally of white lawn or silk, forming a close-fitting hood, to be seen today in old engravings, pictures and effigies of distinguished Judges and Serjeants. Serjeants were an order of the highest rank of barrister at the English or Irish bar. By the ancient privileges of the Serjeants, this coif was not to be taken off even in the royal presence. When wigs came into fashion the coif was changed, no longer being worn as a complete hood, but merely as a circular piece of white lawn fastened to the top of the wig.

THE MOOT COURT BOARD

The Moot Court Board is an honorary, student-run organization to recognize those students with demonstrated outstanding written and oral advocacy skills. Selection of members of the Board is based on exceptional performance in either the first-year Moot Court I Program or the second-year Reimel Moot Court Competition.

The Board is dedicated to the development of student appellate advocacy and coordinates a wide range of activities directed toward achieving that goal. Members represent the Law School in national moot court competitions, organize and administer every facet of the annual Reimel Competition, and research and compose bench memoranda for the Law School's legal writing program.
